Overview

The Packaging Conference has always provided the latest technology advances, significant announcements, development insights, and trends, all of which have been of significant interest to industry professionals.

Our conference producers have deep roots and actively participate in the packaging industry. Our intimate knowledge of the market and strong business and technical backgrounds enable us to produce the industry's premier packaging conference.

With nearly all key industry participants in attendance from across the entire packaging value stream...raw material producers, resin producers, container manufacturers, closure suppliers, label suppliers, equipment manufacturers, additive suppliers, recyclers, brand owners, distributors, retailers, financial analysts and technology providers...The Packaging Conference continues to be the catalyst for innovation.

This conference focuses on packaging materials such as PET, PP, HDPE, bio-polymers, paper, aluminum and glass. We highlight advances in a variety of packaging formats such as bottles and cans, flexibles, thermoforms, and paper packaging.

Attendees

We anticipate 225 to 275 attendees for our 12th annual conference - a majority of whom are upper-level managers and directors.
